TOWN MODERATOR APPOINTMENTS MEMBERS OF THE FAIRHAVEN GOVERNMENT STUDY COMMITTEE

June 26, 2013 – Fairhaven, MA: Fairhaven Town Moderator Mark Sylvia today announced the appointment of seven members and two alternates to the Fairhaven Government Study Committee (the “Committee”). The Committee was established at the May 4, 2013 Special Town Meeting.

The seven members of the Committee are (in alphabetical order):

Eric Dawicki
Andrew Jones
Ron Manzone
Linda Meredith
Patricia Pacella
Bernard Roderick
Phil Washko

The two alternate members are (in alphabetical order):

Dick Douglass
Dan Freitas

Member Bernard Roderick has been designated by the Town Moderator as the Acting Chair to preside over the first meeting. Thereafter the Committee shall elect a permanent Chair and Vice Chair.

Town Moderator Sylvia commented that “with these appointments, the Committee can begin its very important work of reviewing Fairhaven Town Government, in whole, through interviews with public officials, engagement with the public throughout the town’s six precincts, with material and information that has been or may be provided from the state and other resources and through interactions with other municipalities” He further commented that, “with the members appointed today, I have complete confidence that this will be a very thoughtful, open and productive process. Town Moderator Sylvia also noted that “each member brings unique qualifications and experience to the table, ensuring the exchange of diverse ideas and thoughts”
